

Pictures

• your community newspaper • your community newspaper • your community newspaper •

Cast of "Anything Goes!" This July, the historical Westchester Townhouse will become a lavish 1930s Ocean Liner, complete with a traditional gangway on which the audience will "board" the ship for a performance of "Anything Goes!" Discounted tickets are on sale now at www.musicwest.org starting at only $12 each. For more information, please call (310) 692-0006.

St. Anastasia Boy's Soccer Takes Third. The varsity boys' soccer team from St. Anastasia Catholic School has placed third in the Catholic Youth Organization Championships. The team consists of 7th and 8th grade boys who attend the school. Coached by Ruben Morales and Herb Klein the team was able to win all but one game during the regular season. Back row (from left to right): Thomas Syta, Coach Ruben Morales, Stefan Flintoft, Taylor Aguilera, JP Rubalcava, Bobby Fortin and Alex Peck. Front row (from left to right): Lorenzo Secci, Shane Gill, Luciano Lopez, Niko Klein (goalie) and Daniel Lopez. Not pictured: Daniel Berg. PHOTO PROVIDED BY CAROLINE KLEIN.

Loyola High's Westchester Moms. In what has become a highly anticipated event by the Loyola High community and friends, the Mothers' Guild Spring Luncheon celebrated its 79th year supporting faculty endowment.

Quality Homes Since 1975

D GARD